London, Dec. 3.—The reform demonstration lest much of its effect to-day from the inclemency of the weather, but was nevertheless a great affair. There was not the slightest disturbance. Resolutions of a spirited and significant character were passed; and at the close of the meeting the people departed for their homes as quietly and in good order as they came together. Hon, John Bright was present at the demonstration. His appearance was hailed with the loudest cheeps from the enthusiastic multitude.
